Varietal Information

96% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petite Sirah

Wine Attitude

At Ménage à Trois, we've been known to dabble in debauchery from time to time, indulging our passion for rich, luxurious wines. We set out to create the most lavish, over-the-top Cab we could. A wine so seductive it would make Casanova blush. A wine so extravagant it would make Louis XIV seem modest. A wine that would leave you wanting...more. So our winemakers let go of their inhibitions and crafted the most voluptuous, sumptuous, full-bodied Cabernet Sauvignon they could imagine—a wine that could only be called one thing: Ménage à Trois Decadence.

Vineyard and Winemaking

We selected premium fruit grown in some of California's finest wine growing regions known for producing grapes with exceptionally rich flavors and alluring aromas: Lodi/Delta and the Central Coast. The wine is infused with French oak, which imparts a lavish mouthfeel and irresistibly sultry hints of vanilla spice. Every sip is proof that Decadence is liquid deliciousness.

Tasting Notes

Too much of a good thing can be truly wonderful. We recommend indulging in Decadence, our most extravagant Cabernet Sauvignon yet. A dark ruby hue in the glass, this seductive wine arouses your senses with generous berry aromas kissed by bittersweet chocolate. Supported by an elegant structure, opulent black cherry, blackcurrant and blackberry flavors mingle with lavish vanilla spice on the palate before culminating in a smooth, lingering finish that leaves you wanting more.
